09/04/2018		MINUTE ORDER. The Court is in receipt of the parties' 16 Joint Status Report. The parties represent that the OIG has released a partially redacted copy of the O&R Manual, a copy of the list of appendices to the O&R Manual with minor redactions, and the first five appendices to the O&R Manual without redactions. These productions have totaled 171 pages. The remaining request, with some tentative narrowing, encompasses about 850 more pages to be processed. The parties have agreed on a schedule for processing the remaining pages, with OIG processing 100 pages-per-month. OIG will produce non-exempt documents or portions of documents on the last work day of every month, beginning September 28, 2018, until the processing is complete.Despite this progress, Defendants request to move for summary judgment as to the FOIA claims against the FBI on October 5, 2018. The Court will not permit Defendants to file a motion for summary judgement absent a further showing that it is not feasible to simultaneously continue with FOIA claims against the OIG and the FBI. The Court is disinclined to permit a "bifurcation" of Plaintiff's FOIA claims against the OIG and against the FBI. Such bifurcation is not in the interest of the Court's efficiency as it may eventually result in two rounds of summary judgment briefing. The parties are ORDERED to submit a further Joint Status Report, updating the Court on the status of Defendants' processing of Plaintiff's FOIA request, by no later than OCTOBER 5, 2018. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 9/04/2018. (lcckk3) (Entered: 09/04/2018)

09/04/2018		Set/Reset Deadlines: Joint Status Report due by 10/5/2018, updating the Court on the status of Defendants' processing of Plaintiff's FOIA request. (dot) (Entered: 09/06/2018)
10/05/2018	17	Joint STATUS REPORT by FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL. (Sandberg, Justin) (Entered: 10/05/2018)
10/10/2018		MINUTE ORDER. On further consideration of the parties' 17 Joint Status Report as clarified by email, the court ORDERS the parties to file summary judgment briefing on Plaintiff's FOIA request to the FBI. According to the parties, there is a disagreement "about whether Plaintiff has filed a proper FOIA request under 5 U.S.C. § 522(a)(2)." ECF 16 , 1. Because of this disagreement, the FBI has refused to release any documents to Plaintiff. Whether or not Plaintiff filed a proper FOIA request under 5 U.S.C. § 522(a)(2) is a discrete legal issue which can be resolved by Summary Judgment without affecting Plaintiff's FOIA request to the DOJ, as the DOJ is still in the process of reviewing and disclosing documents. The Court ORDERS parties to file cross-motions for summary judgment by OCTOBER 24, 2018. Parties are further ORDERED to file their Oppositions by NOVEMBER 3, 2018, and their Replies by NOVEMBER 10, 2018. While the parties brief this issue and the Court considers this issue, the DOJ should continue responding to Plaintiff's FOIA request. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 10/10/2018. (lcckk3) (Entered: 10/10/2018)
10/10/2018		Set/Reset Deadlines: Parties' Cross Motions due by 10/24/2018. Response to Cross Motions due by 11/3/2018. Replies to Cross Motions due by 11/10/2018. (dot) (Entered: 10/11/2018)
10/22/2018	18	Unopposed MOTION for Order by DAVID L. SNYDER (Snyder, David) (Entered: 10/22/2018)
10/22/2018		MINUTE ORDER. The Court is in receipt of Plaintiff's 18 Unopposed Motion for Order. On October 10, 2018, the Court issued a Minute Order, ordering Plaintiff and Defendant to file cross-motions for summary judgment on Plaintiff's FOIA claims against the FBI. Since the Court issued that Minute Order, Plaintiff reports that he now believes that he may be able to obtain the requested information from publicly available sources, thereby obviating the need for summary judgment cross-motions. Accordingly, Plaintiff requests that the Court stay the current briefing schedule for cross-motions for summary judgment and order the parties to file a Joint Status Report by November 29, 2018, reporting whether cross-motions for summary judgment relating to Plaintiff's claims against the FBI remain necessary. The Court GRANTS Plaintiff's Motion. The Court ORDERS the briefing schedule set forth in the Court's October 10, 2018 Minute Order STAYED and the current deadlines VACATED. The Court further ORDERS the parties to file a Joint Status report informing the Court on whether or not cross-motions for summary judgment regarding Plaintiff's claims against the FBI are still needed by NOVEMBER 29, 2018. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 10-22-2018. (lcckk3) (Entered: 10/22/2018)

11/29/2018	20	Joint STATUS REPORT by FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL. (Sandberg, Justin) (Entered: 11/29/2018)
11/30/2018		MINUTE ORDER. The Court is in receipt of the parties' 20 Joint Status Report. On October 10, 2018, this Court granted Plaintiff's request for leave to bifurcate summary judgment briefing in this FOIA case, permitting summary judgment briefing as to Defendant FBI while Defendant OIG continued to process documents related to Plaintiff's FOIA request. But, on October 22, 2018, at Plaintiff's request, the Court stayed its October 10, 2018 Order, as Plaintiff indicated that he may be able to get the requested information from publicly available sources, obviating the need for summary judgment motions. In this Joint Status Report, the parties indicate that, at this time, they do not intend to file cross motions for summary judgment pertaining to Plaintiff's

		FOIA claims against the FBI. Accordingly, the Court VACATES the motions schedule. If cross motions for summary judgment are required, the parties will file them in conjunction with any summary judgment briefing on Plaintiff's claims against the OIG. The parties are ORDERED to file another Joint Status Report by JANUARY 7, 2019, updating the Court on the status of Plaintiff's FOIA requests to both the FBI and the OIG. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 11/30/2018. (lcckk3) (Entered: 11/30/2018)
12/26/2018	21	MOTION to Stay by FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL (Attachments: # 1 Text of Proposed Order)(Sandberg, Justin) (Entered: 12/26/2018)
01/02/2019		MINUTE ORDER. The Court is in receipt of Defendants' 21 Motion for a Stay of Proceedings in Light of Lapse of Appropriations. According to the Court's November 30, 2018 Minute Order, the parties are ordered to file a Joint Status Report by January 7, 2019 informing the Court on the status of Plaintiff's FOIA requests to the FBI and the OIG. Defendants request a stay on the deadline for filing the Joint Status Report due to the expiration of the appropriations act that had been funding the Department of Justice. Defendants indicated that Plaintiff opposes Defendants' motion. The Court GRANTS Defendants' motion. Absent an appropriation, Department of Justice lawyers and officials, including those responsible for processing the documents potentially responsive to Plaintiff's FOIA request, are prohibited from working except in limited circumstances which do not apply to this case. The Court ORDERS the parties to file their Joint Status Report three business days after the day on which Congress restores appropriations to the Department of Justice. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 1-2-2019. (lcckk3) (Entered: 01/02/2019)
01/02/2019		Case STAYED. (kt) (Entered: 01/02/2019)
01/28/2019	22	NOTICE of Restoration of Appropriations by FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL (Sandberg, Justin) (Entered: 01/28/2019)
01/30/2019	23	Joint STATUS REPORT by FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL. (Sandberg, Justin) (Entered: 01/30/2019)
01/31/2019		MINUTE ORDER. The Court is in receipt of the parties' 23 Joint Status Report. Defendant reports that the OIG made its last production to Plaintiff on December 21, 2018. That same day, the appropriations to the Department of Justice lapsed, and on January 2, 2019, the Court granted a stay in this case. During the lapse in appropriations, the OIG was unable to process documents related to Plaintiff's FOIA request. The OIG resumed processing Plaintiff's FOIA request with the restoration of appropriations on January 25, 2019. Under the parties' agreement, Defendant processes 100 pages of Plaintiffs' request monthly and makes productions on the last day of every month. Defendant's January production was due January 31, 2019. At issue is whether, due to the lapse in appropriations and the stay, Defendant should make its "January" document production on February 28, 2019 or on February 15, 2019. Defendant argues that it should make its "January" production on February 28, 2019. Defendant contends that it should have 35 days (the number of days that the Department lacked appropriations) after the production was due on January 31, 2019 to make the next production. Defendant's calculation would make the production due March 6, 2019; but, Defendant is willing to make the production on February 28, 2019. Plaintiff argues that, in the month of January, the Department lacked appropriations for only 17 business days. Accordingly, Plaintiff contends that Defendant's deadline to make "January" productions should be extended by only 17 days, which would make the production due on February 15, 2019. The Court ORDERS Defendant to make its next document production on FEBRUARY 28, 2019. From December 21, 2018 to January 25, 2019, Defendant was unable to process Plaintiff's FOIA request due to a lack of appropriations. The lack of appropriations lasted 35 days. Accordingly, the Court finds it reasonable that Defendant be given 28 days after Defendant's production was due to make its January production. Following that production, Defendant should continue with the production schedule of processing 100 pages monthly and producing documents to Plaintiff on the last day of each month. The parties are ORDERED to file a Joint Status Report by 5:00 p.m. on MARCH 15, 2019, informing the Court on the status of Plaintiff's FOIA request. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 1/31/2019. (lcckk3) (Entered: 01/31/2019)

03/15/2019	24	Joint STATUS REPORT by FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL. (Coyle, Garrett) (Entered: 03/15/2019)
03/15/2019		MINUTE ORDER. The Court is in receipt of the parties' 24 Joint Status Report. The parties report that the U.S. Department of Justice Office of the Inspector General processed 100 pages of potentially responsive records and produced non-exempt records to Plaintiff on February 28, 2019. The parties further report that the OIG continues to process potentially responsive records in accordance with the schedule. The Court ORDERS the parties to file another Joint Status Report by MAY 14, 2019. Signed by Judge Colleen Kollar-Kotelly on 3/15/2019. (lcckk3) (Entered: 03/15/2019)
03/15/2019		Set/Reset Deadlines: Joint Status Report due by 5/14/2019. (dot) (Entered: 03/18/2019)
